HSUAN-HUA IRON AND STEEL PLANTS
HSUAN-HUA, CHINA

The Hsuan-Hua Iron and Steel Plants are located at 29 26N - 115 02E and 39 36N - 115 04E just south and southeast of the city of Hsuan-Hua, China.

The plant to the south of Hsuan-Hua contains five small inactive blast furnaces, and six or seven medium size blast furnaces. The plant to the southeast of Hsuan-Hua contains two by-products coke oven batteries, a by-products section, two small blast furnaces, six larger blast furnaces, and a side-blown converter shop. No smoke or traffic activity was discernable on photography flown in [REDACTED]

Photography [REDACTED] revealed smoke or steam coming from the by-products coke oven batteries. The small scale and poor quality precluded identification of the other operating facilities.
